

September Committee meeting – Dave Clarkes house

Friday 6th September – 7.30

Apologies – Penny Spooner

Chairman report

Welcome to Martin Stretton who attended the meeting.

Committee decided to reveal to the club members that we are officially moving to Stanton lakes next summer as the club new home waters.

Points that need agreeing with Mick the owner,

£1200 for the year as payment for the lake

One night a week, unsure on whether we have sole access or share the lake

We can also use the lake on some Saturdays with prior arrangement

Lesley to tell Dave Callington on Wednesday that we are leaving the lake at Burton Hastings

Members can borrow boats and kit over the winter, this will be at our discretion to who and what people can have.

Vice chairman report

To look at funding over the winter for new boats and kits for the new lake next summer

Looking into buying two way radios for trips and on the lake, Martin to try his set first

Treasures report

Current bank total - £4470.10

£24 of donations made from the Lime Kilns raft race

Lake money from the 8th May has gone missing, we are unsure on who took the money on this week
